Validity and Application

Nothing herein contained is intended by the Company to negate or limit any right in law which cannot lawfully be so negated or limited and if it should be held by a court or other competent jurisdiction that any of these terms and conditions has that effect, then such part or parts shall be severed from the remainder which shall continue in full force and effect.

Customer Shall mean the person, firm or company identified in or by means of the Contract as ordering goods.

Goods Shall mean every, or where the context so requires, any item of whatsoever nature, which the Customer buys or has agreed to buy from the Company under this Contract.

1. Formation of Contract

- a. All orders will be taken and all goods supplied by the Company subject to these terms and conditions and, subject to the 'Validity and Application' statement above, no other terms, conditions or warranties are to be implied into Contract unless expressly accepted in writing by an authorised representative of the Company.
- b. Subject to the provision of clause 1. (a) above mentioned, these terms and conditions are the only terms and conditions applicable to the Contract and shall supersede all earlier arrangements or agreements entered into or made between the Company and the Customer and shall apply to the exclusion of any other provisions contained in any other document issued by the Customer in any manner whatsoever or at any point in time.

2. Quotations and Estimates

- a. The Company shall only be bound by prices quoted in writing and for a specified time. Any prices exhibited on the Company's premises constitute an Invitation to Treat only.

Where the Company provides a quotation to a Customer, that quotation shall be available for acceptance by the Customer for a maximum period of fourteen days, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by an authorised representative of the Company. The Company may by written or oral notice withdraw any quotation at any time prior to the Customer's acceptance.
- c. If between the date of contract and the date or dates of collection or delivery there are variations in the costs of manufacturers prices, transport, taxes or other costs or charges, then the contract price may be varied at the Company's discretion. That is to say that, unless the Company's quotation specifically provides for a fixed price contract, the prices ruling shall be those at the date of collection, despatch or delivery.
- d. Where the Company provides the Customer with an estimate for the supply of goods, such estimate shall be provisional only and will be subject to variation in the price of such ordered items.

3. VAT

Unless otherwise stated, all prices are exclusive of VAT.

4. Separate Contracts

Each order and its acceptance is to be treated as a separate contract and accordingly, if there should be at any one time more than one contract in the course of performance between the Company and the Customer, and if any question, dispute or difficulty shall arise in respect of one or such contracts, neither the existence of such, dispute or difficulty nor the terms on which it may be settled shall effect in any way whatsoever other such contracts.

- b. If the Customer shall fail to pay for the goods ordered in accordance with the provisions of the said clause 5., above mentioned, the Company shall be entitled to treat the Contract as repudiated by the Customer. In this event the Company may retain any deposit or part thereof without prejudice to the Company's rights to recover from the Customer by way of damages any loss or expense which the Company may suffer or incur by reason of the Customer's default and the Company shall be entitled to dispose of any goods as they shall think fit and shall not be under any liability to account to the Customer for the price received for such goods or for the said deposit.

7. Cancellation

The Company shall be entitled to full indemnity if the Customer cancels an order, which the Company has accepted.
